

Raphael Barisaac

Global Head of Cash Management, UniCredit

Since 2019, Raphael is responsible for the Cash Management at UniCredit Group level, developing strategy for Innovative solutions within the payments, channels and liquidity management alleviating corporate clients experience and implementing digital transformation. Prior to this, Raphael headed the Trade Finance and Working Capital Solutions business globally for several years. Raphael joined UniCredit in 2015 as Global Head of Trade Products from Surecomp, a leading provider of global trade solutions, where he held various positions for over 15 years in Sales, Operations, Business Development, Account management and Client projects. Raphael started his career in banking at Mercantile Bank in 1994.