

Roberto Monachino

Executive Vice President in UniCredit as Group Chief Data Officer. I do always things with passion and positive spirit, Tech driven and Digital enthusiast. First mover in 2009 in Data Governance and Performance Risk Adjustment platform. Sound skills in financial domains thanks to the strong experience matured in different roles and different companies: Treasury, Finance, Planning and IT-Ops. Currently in overall data management and process integration among business-risk-finance in order to improve data integration, data quality, business marketing in new data driven opportunities, as well as reduce data complexity, costs and IT landscape. Leader in streamlining business process with data, expert in data model-engines with forward looking approach and vision in the adoption of Business Intelligence and Advance Analytics- Big Data Technologies in unified architecture with data warehouse.